AGAINST JUDGMENT DEBTOR(S)

FINAL REPORT AND ANSWER OF THE GARNISHEE (2716.08 ORC)

The Garnishee, _____, in the above case, states as follows:

1. The date that the garnishee received the order of garnishment of the judgment debtor's personal earnings was _____.
2. The total probable amount now due on the judgment, including court cost, judgment interest, and, if applicable, prejudgment interest, as stated in SECTION A: COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT or in the affidavit of the current balance due on garnishment order if that affidavit has been received subsequent to the order of garnishment, is $_____.
3. The total amount that has been withheld from the judgment debtor's personal earnings and paid to the court while the COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT remained in effect is $_____.
4. (When Applicable) The total probably amount due on the judgment (as stated in Section 2 above) is not equal to the total amount that has been withheld (as stated in Section 3 above), and the reason for that difference is that the COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT ceased to be in effect for the following statutorily prescribed reason(s): (Check any and all that apply.)
 - (A) A municipal or county court appointed a trustee for the judgment debtor and issued an order that stays the COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT.
 - (B) A federal bankruptcy court issued an order that stays the COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT.
 - (C) A municipal or county court or a court of common pleas issued another order of garnishment of personal earnings that related to the judgment debtor and a different judgment creditor, and Ohio or federal law provides the other order with a higher priority. Set forth the name of the court that issued the higher priority order, the associated case number, the date that the higher priority order was received, and the balance due to the relevant judgment creditor under that order:

 - (D) A municipal or county court or a court of common pleas issued another order of garnishment of personal earnings that relates to the judgment debtor and a different judgment creditor and that is not describe in 4(C) above. Set forth the nbase of the court that issued the subsequently received order, the associated case number, the date that the subsequent order was received, and the balance due to the relevant judgment creditor under that order:

 - (E) The judgment creditor or judgment creditor's attorney has issued a request that the order of garnishment be terminated and the garnishee released from the mandates of the order of garnishment.
 - (F) The judgment debtor's employment terminated on: _____.
 - (G) Other: _____.

I CERTIFY THAT THE STATEMENTS ABOVE ARE TRUE.
